3  1  2

Warm and bright, quaint and cosy, this 3 bedroom double carport post-war home communicates stability and longevity with its period features incorporating a working brick fireplace, art nouveau leadlight, art deco cornices, high ceilings, and picture rails. Polished floorboards add to the luminosity of the home, which includes mixed hardwood in the spacious east facing dining room with sunroom style windows. From here a pleasant vista over the flourishing and safe backyard leads to a paved BBQ courtyard, which is also accessible from the carport. Painted in inviting colours of 'lemoncello' with enhancements in 'kid leather' grey inside and out, the home has been finely renovated to include an updated blue & white bathroom, a stylish black & timber kitchen, re-tiled internal laundry & an utterly charming garden. Wood cabinetry juxtaposed with faux
