

1/5 Heath Street ASQUITH NSW

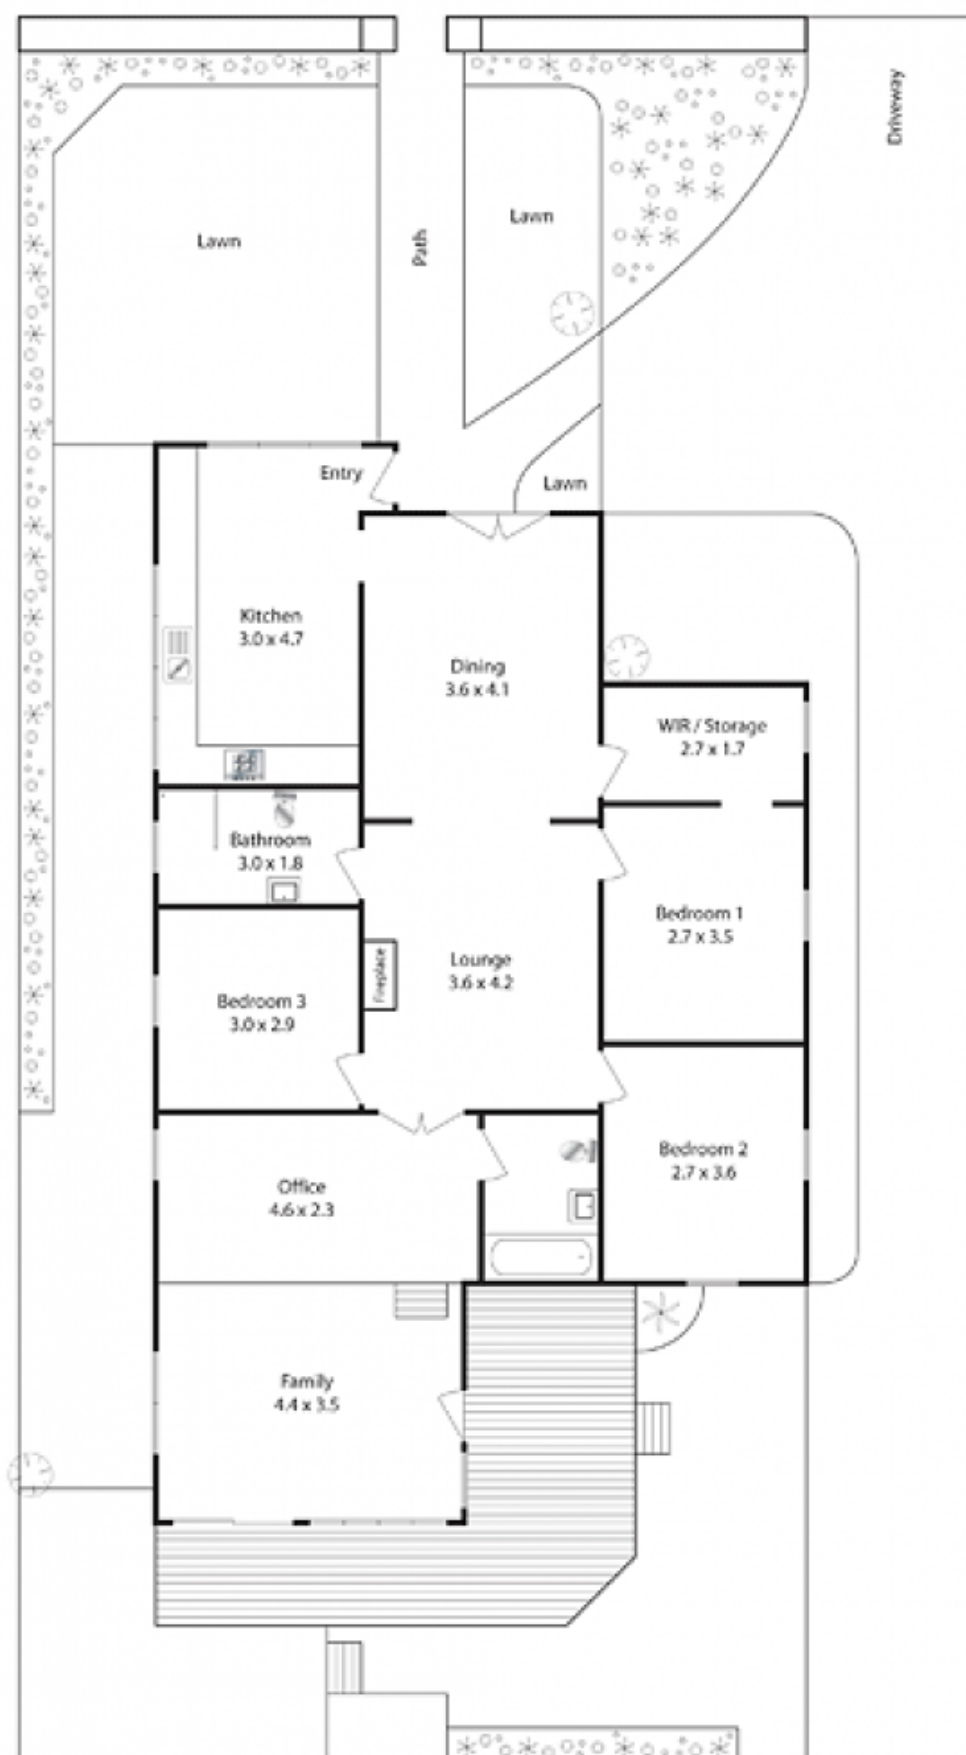

3  2  1

In a quiet street of quaint homes, this freestanding 3 bedroom 2 bathroom Californian Bungalow has a currency about it with its designer colour scheme of distinguished deep grey and bright white. The character elements are integrated sympathetically with the modern styling and features in the gas kitchen and bathrooms. Very high ceilings proffer cool in summer and the combustion fireplace (inside a brick surround & with optional gas point) warms the whole house in winter. The original floorboards have been revived throughout and patterned ceilings retained, internal spaces have been re-configured to make the home open, airy and light, from the kitchen to the dining room, to the lounge area to the home office and split level down to the family room, onto the wrap around deck and courtyard.
