

17 Heather Place HORNSBY HEIGHTS NSW

5  3  2

'A palace in heaven' is how the current owners refer to this property. It includes 5 bedrooms, 3 spacious bathrooms, 2 large open plan living and dining spaces (the upper level with polished floorboards), 2 undercover outdoor entertaining spaces, 2 full kitchens and 2 laundries, all over 2 levels, and a good DLUG. There is plentiful storage, built-ins and WIR. Still modern and well maintained in its appearance, this brick home on 860sqm approx was built around 15 years ago, and specifically designed to wow you with the view from the moment you walk through the front door onto the landing. Soaring raked ceilings and clerestory windows over the upper living area flow down to a waterfall of glass that cascades over the entire rear facade on both levels, offering breathtaking views to the north, imbuing feelings of calm, solitude and oneness with nature.
