Experience the romance and the old world charm of a bygone era in this single level, double brick Californian bungalow. The formal lounge with its working fireplace evokes nostalgia, and the main bedroom looks out to a beautiful front garden with a white picket fence. Pleasant greenery wraps itself around the house providing excellent privacy.

In a family friendly street, this home comprises 2 large bedrooms (both with stylish built-ins), 2 bathrooms and 2 car spaces. The neat low maintenance block means that you can enjoy the experience of living in a solid family home that has been built to last, without interrupting the flow and demands of contemporary living. There is nothing more to spend because the recent renovations include a
