Cute and neat at the front, this weatherboard cottage facade, with a picket fence and arbour entry to the property, belie the enormous spaces within the home and of the back yard. This home on an excellent level block, is spacious enough for everyone to have their own retreats, including in the four queen-sized bedrooms (one with a gas heating point) and multiple living and dining areas are all very spacious. A huge undercover terrace flows out from a large family room which is open plan to a big country style kitchen. The formal dining room faces north east and is light and airy and connects between the family room and the kitchen (with an Asko dishwasher, ceran cooktop and stainless steel rangehood).
