Stylishly presented with a sense of panache, this recently renovated three bedroom home offers a surprise package for the astute purchaser interested outdoor sports or just the great outdoors. From top to shiny floorboards bottom, a deft hand has applied the perfect finished touch. Entering via the boutique front verandah and landscaped gardens, the home displays an inviting lounge room with split air-conditioning and down-lights. From here, polished floorboards weave a natural light that reflect the rooms modern colours as well as theme and then journeys on through most of the other rooms. The main has a large built-in-robe and, together with the other two bedrooms, is also garnished with a chic colour theme. The main bathroom is bathed in a contemporary tile and colour combination. Speaking of style, the kitchen, with S/S
