Pretty as a picture cottage facade veiled by soft green front garden foliage takes in elevated tranquil bushland views. Revamped to immaculate condition, the 2 storey home occupies a manageable approx 746sqm private sunken setting alongside a silent cul de sac street - interrupted only by the soothing call of local birdlife.

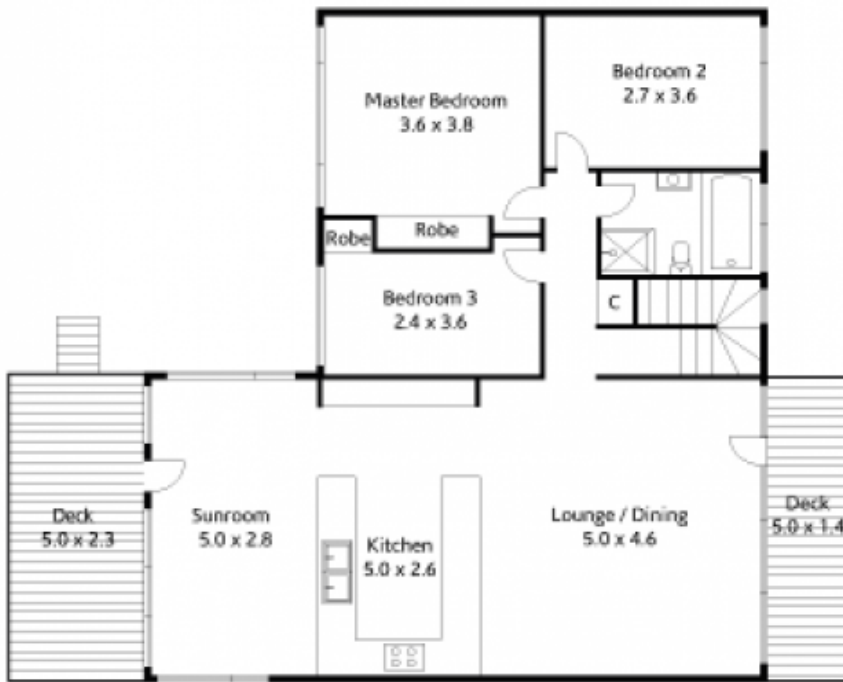

A spectacular flowering purple Tibouchina, and deck entranceway overlooking the landscaped garden introduces fresh and cheerful interiors defined by vibrant feature walls and timber floors illuminated by plenty of natural light spilling through generous timber windows.

Inside, a comfortable living area with wraparound windows flows to an additional living space and sheltered deck with
