It feels like summer all year round in this bright, breezy, and immaculate solid brick residence where indoor outdoor living takes centre stage, and wonderfully spacious open plan interiors bathe in natural light through high set windows beneath cathedral ceilings and exposed sawn Oregon beams.

Nestled next to a quiet cul de sac on a substantial approx 1227sqm, the split level home feels fresh and vibrant from the moment you enter through the flourishing fern, frangipani and red bottlebrush front garden.

The study to the left of the entrance provides built-in shelving and the master bedroom located straight ahead boasts a sky lit CaesarStone vanity ensuite and private
