

7A Maranta Street HORNSBY NSW

3 1 1

Charming 1960s cottage, attached on one side, peacefully tucked away in a private off street setting provides a tranquil haven framed with a generous lawn garden, and perfectly geared to accommodate the active family, young couple or downsizers who value outdoor space.

A sandstone pathway and patio introduce the dwelling, perfectly positioned to face sunny due north. An attractive, well presented interior is defined by high ceilings, newly polished timber floors and fresh neutral tones. Timber sash windows imbue every area of the home with natural light and green views.

The split level living and dining area is comfortably spacious, and provides mains gas heating and a split air
