A gradual revamp over the past few years presents this elevated, north facing family home in excellent condition. It occupies a prime corner street setting in a peaceful, friendly neighbourhood with very close proximity to local amenities.

Plentiful plush lawn wraps the front of the home, and the elevated patio entry introduces a light filled interior with white walls, exposed beams and sash windows providing tranquil green outlooks from every angle.

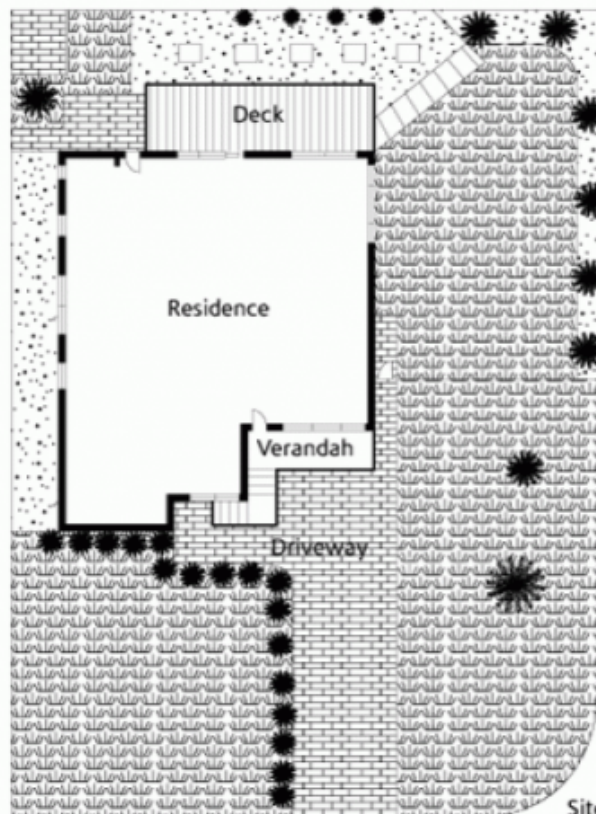

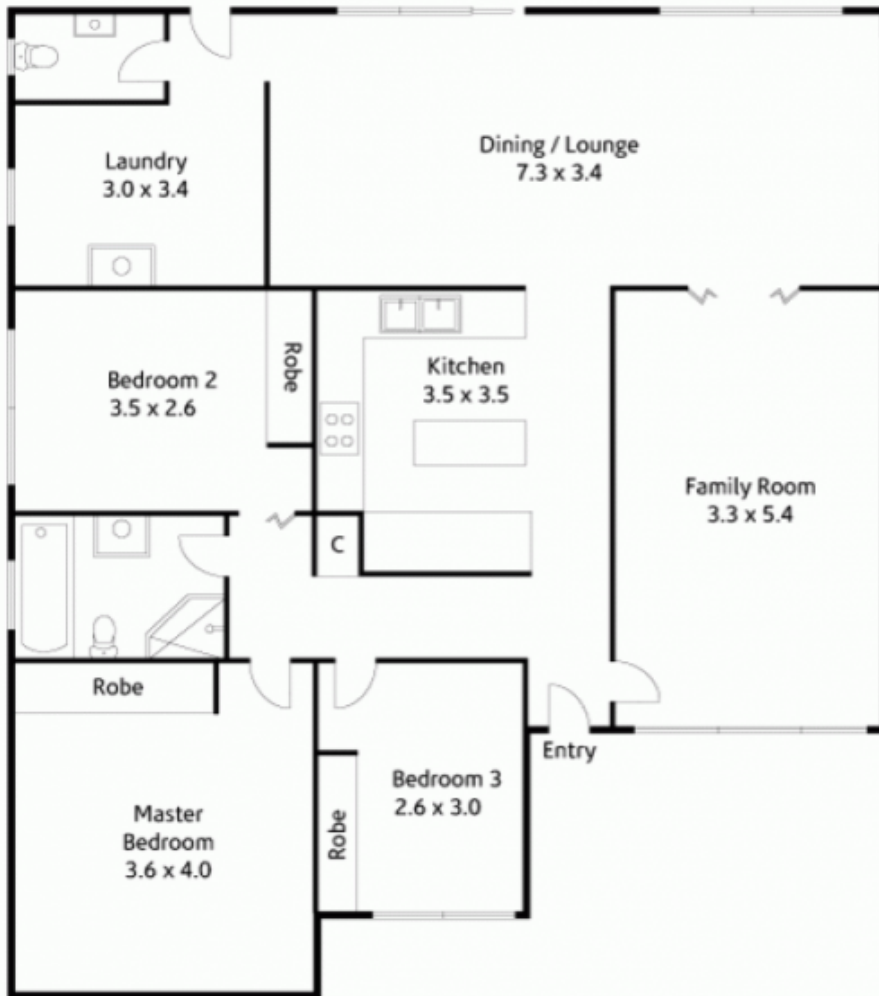

The large carpeted family area is awash with sunlight, with a broad window view to the front patio and tranquil lawn garden. Continue through concertina doors to combined living and dining complete with LG reverse cycle air
