3  1  1

This neat 1950's timber weatherboard cottage has plenty of charm and classic appeal, overlooking Asquith Park and set back on a gentle sloping garden block of approx 873m2. A coat of paint has refreshed the dwelling with a new lease of life inside and out, so there's nothing to do but move in and enjoy.

The welcoming sun washed interior featuring 10ft ceilings, original Cyprus pine floors, instantly feels like home. Carpeted living and casual dining has reverse cycle air conditioning and the separate formal dining room includes a ceiling fan for superior climate comfort. Natural sky light illuminates the newly renovated kitchen, with tiled splashback, stainless steel Omega dishwasher and above stove range hood. Bedrooms are equally spacious with
