This modernist, architect designed residence bears striking resemblance to Harry Seidler's iconic style, offering a timeless sleek interior aesthetic beyond its sturdy double brick facade. Around 960sqm embraces tranquil natural bushland in an utterly private, elevated position with every amenity mere footsteps away.

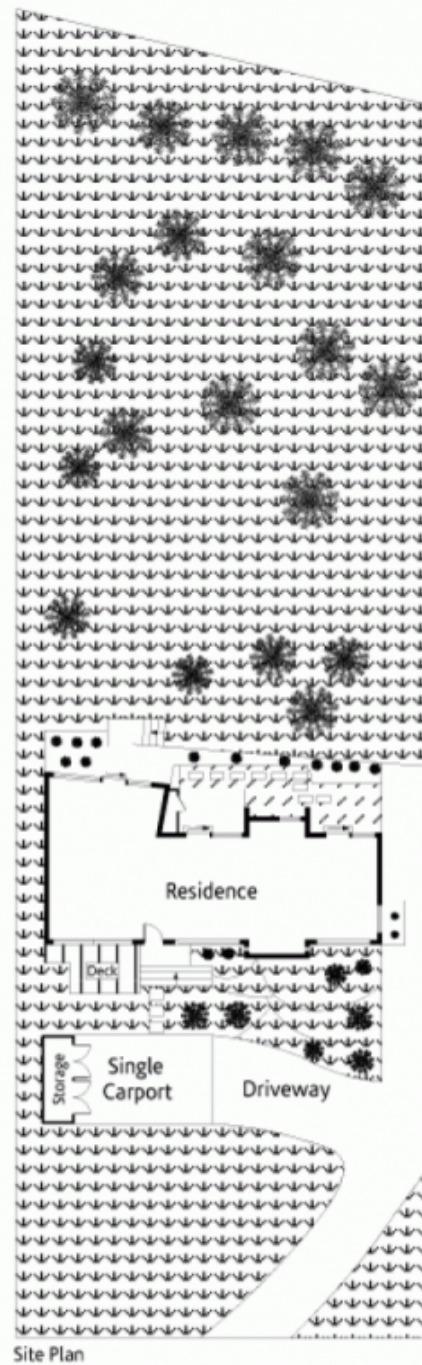

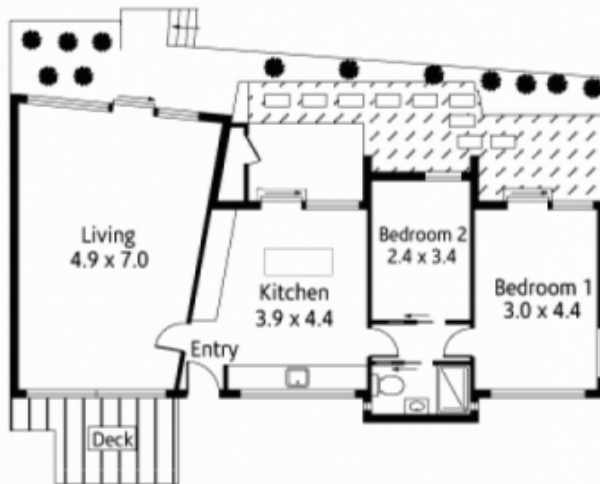

Forever stylish timber finishes, bare brick and exposed beams complement huge floor to ceiling glass sliders and windows that showcase captivating outlooks and flood the home with natural light.

Expansive open plan living flows outside to the new mini deck, and rear garden. A sleek industrial theme pervades the spacious new kitchen, finished with polished concrete
